NEWS RELEASE

Triple Murder/Suicide

Today, San Antonio Police responded to 1414 Burleson for a possible injured person. Upon arrival, officers found a 41 year old male dead from a gunshot wound to the back. Homicide Detectives began investigating and during the preliminary investigation it was believed that the gunshot may have come from inside 1414 Burleson. Believing evidence could be obtained from inside 1414 Burleson, detectives applied for and were granted an evidentiary search warrant for the home.

Upon execution of the search warrant detectives discovered a 27 year old female, 10 year old girl and 6 year old boy, all dead from apparent gunshot wounds. From the preliminary investigation, detectives believe the 27 year old women may have shot and killed the 41 year old, as he was leaving the house, then turned the gun on the children before killing herself.

Names of the victims and suspect will be withheld pending notification of next of kin.
